FORWARD

The history of St. Daniel's Church, locally known as "Corner Church" or "Ech Kirch" and originally designated as "The Lutheran Congregation of Heidelberg" began some time in 1750, and possibly prior to that year, on an informal basis. It is likely that the inconvenience and problem of transportation to the nearest Lutheran Church resulted in the initiation of local worship services and, as the area increased in population, eventually the growth warranted a more permanent organization and a local house of worship. So our fathers in the faith maintained the church until a tract of land became available upon which to erect a building.

In compiling this history of St. Daniel's for inclusion in the Parish Record in this Bicentennial Year of our Nation and the 225th Anniversary of our Church, it was practical and necessary that the record should be brief and accurate. This record does not presume to cover all the detail available. Much enlightening and interesting information concerning records of contributors, in the early years of our church, records of baptisms, sponsors, tombstone inscriptions, complete parish data, biographical information of pastors, land descriptions and other pertinent and interesting facts have not been presented.

The information for this history has been obtained principally from Michael A. Gruber's History of St. Daniel's, existing church records, "Lutheran in Berks County" by H. S. Kidd and " The Lutheran Church in Berks County" by The Rev. Mark K. Trexler, B.D. Our church is indebted to the later Michael A. Gruber for his effort and research which resulted in a 562 page history of St. Daniel's Church. A great number of the records which he examined and recorded in his history are no longer available so that only his recording and translations of this data have been preserved for posterity.

We, the members of St. Daniel's Church, owe an eternal debt of gratitude to our forefathers. They are the ones who set down the roots, built the church and who expressed their faith and creed in the "Articles of Government and Discipline" of 1753 - "consequently, from a motive of gratitude to God, esteem for our forefathers, and duty which we owe to ourselves, our children, and later generations, it shall be our great endeavor to preserve among us and our posterity, our pure and saving doctrine founded in God's word conformally to the original Augsburg Confession, etc., that we and those after us may keep a safe and sure way through this world of sorrow, through want and death, to eternal salvation".

They have laid the foundation and issued the challenge. God help us to preserve the fruits of their effort and be worthy of their trust.

ST. DANIEL'S
THE LUTHERAN CONGREGATION OF HEIDELBERG

About 1750, seventeen years after the first group of Palatines arrived in Tulpehocken, the deacons, elders and members of the Evangelical Lutheran Congregation of Heidelberg petitioned the Evangelical Lutheran Ministerium in Pennsylvania to provide a leader to receive the congregation into the Ministerium.

This was the beginning of St. Daniel's Church, locally, known as "Corner Church" or "Ech Kirche", located on the northwestern corner of a crossroads about a mile northward of Robesonia in Heidelberg Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania.

At the time of the founding, there were few Lutheran Churches west of the Schuylkill, Reiths (Reeds-Zion), Christ Tulpehocken, Christ Little Tulpehocken and Northkill (Friedens) at Bernville. Reading was three years old, Berks County had not been erected, and Heidelberg which included the later subdivisions of North and Lower Heidelberg and which had no all around definite boundaries, was part of Lancaster County. Alexander Hamilton and the Marquis de Lafayette had not been born, Thomas Jefferson was seven years old, John Adams fifteen and George Washington eighteen years old.

The church was known as the Lutheran Congregation of Heidelberg until 1814 when it received the name Saint Daniel at the laying of the corner-stone of the second building. The designation of "Corner" or "Eck" is said to have originated not so much from the location of the building as from the fact that the corners of a number of farms center about the place.

On May 30, 1751, the Congregation came into possession of three adjoining tracts of land (1) one-half acre from John Artz, (2) one-half acre from Michael Schauer (Shower) and (3) three-fourths acre from Abraham Lauck.

This land was received in trust for the congregation by John Beyer and Frederick Weiser, five (5) shillings being paid for each tract, the payments being, no doubt, required to render the transactions valid. The deeds for these tracts were acknowledged June 8,1751 before Conrad Weiser, one of the Justices of the Peace of Lancaster County, who on December 10, 1751, gave a receipt in full for three pounds for executing six deeds in connection with church land.

The Declaration of Trust in case of the half acre received from John Artz, shows that the land was "to be for the Benefit, Use, Behoof of the poor of the said Dutch Lutheran Congregation atHeidelberg aforsed forever, and a place to erect a House of Religious Worship for the Use and Service of said Congregation and If occasion shall require, for a place to bury their Dead."

The rent to the Lord of the fee for that half acre was the proportinate share of three bushels of good winter wheat, this being the rent prescribed for 193 acres of which the half acre had been a part and which was granted by indenture of November 30, 1747, to John Artz by William Allen and Margaret, his wife. The yearly rent for the half acre would have been a half-pint of wheat.

Other tracts of land were acquired by the Congregation as follows:
(4) Aug. 21, 1773, 53 perches from George Lauck for 40 shillings, Ludwig Fisher and Henry Fidler acting as Trustees.
(5) 20 May 1813, 150 perches from Ludwig Fisher for 5 shillings, Leonard Stub, Matthias Wenrich, Matthias Miller and John Ernst being the Elders of the Church.
(6) Sometime between 1813 and 1847 from John Eckert, (no record of the transaction being found), a small triangular piece of land, about 6 & 1/2 rods long and 2 rods wide, forming a wedge between the northern portions of the Luding Fisher and the John L. Fisher tracts.
(7) 2 April 1847, one (1) acre and 96 perches from John L. Fisher for $120.33, the trustees being Daniel Wenrich and Henry Fidler.

(8) 27 August 1866, one (1) acre from Joseph Wenrich for $100, Daniel Moyer and William Stump being the trustees.
(9) 7 April 1880, four (4) acres from Adams S. Valentine, part of the former estate of David Bechtel for $1200, the trustees being John B. Stump, Israel S. Gruber and Adam Brigel.

These nine (9) tracts formed one piece of land consisting of approximately ten (10) acres. On the Artz tract appears to have been erected the first church building (apparently in the N.W. corner), the greater part of the old graveyard being also located thereon. The second and present edifice is principally in the Ludwig Fisher tract, while the second graveyard occupies part of the John L. Fisher and Wenrich tracts. The Valentine tract contains the Cemetery (Heidelberg). On the Ludwig Fisher tract is also situated the dwelling house belonging to the church. This building was erected in 1903 and occupies the site of a former dwelling house, known as the "schoolhouse". Additional land was acquired by the church after 1880. Seven acres were purchased from Mary E. Brown on 1 April 1901 and on 12 September 1908, one acre and 150 square rods from George Valentine. Later two purchases were made from Oliver Moll bringing the total land holdings to 20 acres.

On 24 May 1751, a contract was made by John Beyer and Michael Schauer, members of the congregation, with Andrew Dietz and John Michael Dietz, masons of Lancaster County, for the mason work of of the first church building, the walls to have the following dimensions: Length of church 40 feet; width of church 36 feet; heighth 20 feet. One shilling 6 pence, Pennsylvania Currency, was to be paid for each perch of masonry, and double pay allowed for the foundation. Andrew Rieger and John Ermendraud were the witnessesto this contract. The first church edifice was therefore a stone structure and not a wooden or log building as was commonly supposed. (This agreement was executed six days before the acquisition of the land).

A simple agreement was also made on 29 June 1751, by the same two church members, with Frederick Kobel, who was to make two door frames, eight window frames, and a gallery of two pews deep on the long side of the church and of three pews deep on the short side; also to erect a stairway, set the purlins for the rafters, and construct a vestibule on the outside of the door. For this work, he was to receive 11 pounds Pennsylvania currency. A receipt dated 13 October 1753, shows that Frederick Kobel received 10 pounds Pennsylvania currency, from John Beyer and Michael Schauer, for carpenter work done at the church in Heidelberg Township.

Another contract was made on 18 June 1753, for whatever carpenter work was yet to be done in the church, with Christian Betz, master joiner, who was to receive 24 pounds Pennsylvania currency, also the nails and glue needed. The contracting party consisted of members of the congregation whose names are given as follows: Simon Binetsch, Johann Georg Lauck, Michael Schauer, Johannes Artz, Matthias Wenrich, Jacob Mauntz, Henrich Fiedler, Adam Schauer, Johannes Beyer, Johannes Beyer, Jr., Henrich Beyer, Philipp Ermentraudt, Peter Feg, Leonhard Feg, Henrich Gruber and Jose Hetterich - 16 members.

The cornerstone of this, the first building, was laid in 1751 and the building was probably completed in 1754.

The second building - walls a part of the present edifice, was built during 1814 to 1817. The cornerstone was laid 1 May 1814, on which occasion the church received the name Saint Daniel. The structure was built of stone, 52 feet long and 46 feet wide. The building committee consisted of eight members: Henrich Bennetsch, Heinrich Gruber, Georg Gruber, Johannis Ernst, Peter Spang, Johannis Palm, Wilhelm Roether, and Jonathan Minnig.

This building was remodeled in 1849 and again in 1911 when extensive alterations took place. An addition of 14 feet to the east with a tower and bell and a pulpit recess of 8 feet to the west was completed, the historic chancel located at the north wall was replaced by the present chancel at the west wall, the floor was inclined, a new ceiling inserted, steam heat was installed, beautiful walls were covered and colonial fixtures were replaced by more modern decorations. Much of the beauty and the historic value of the building was lost at this time. In 1922, electric lights were installed in the building and two years later, the present organ was purchased from the M. P. Moeller Co. The educational building was added to the west end of the church and in 1964, the interior of the church was completely renovated. Seating was rearranged providing a center aisle, new stained glass windows were installed and carpeting was provided. At the same time, the tower and the bell were removed from the church, the tower rebuilt and the bell reinstalled.

From the founding in 1750, until August 1876, the Lutherans had entire control of the church; but on that date "permission was given to a Reformed Congregation, by the St. Daniel's Lutheran Congregation of Heidelberg Township, in consideration of the sum of one dollar per annum to have a right to worship and hold religious services in the building the same as the Lutheran Congregation now does". The first service was held on 25 December 1876 and the Reformed Congregation continued worship and services there until 19 February 1905 when the last service occurred. The Reformed Congregation left St. Daniel's, not because of any rupture of friendly relations, but owing to a desire to have a church building of their own in the town of Robesonia.

The pastors who served St. Daniel's Church are as follows:

Rev. John Nicholas Kurtz	1750-1770
Rev. Christopher Emanuel Shultz	1771-1809
Rev. William Beates
Rev. Daniel Ulrich	1811-1853
Rev. Thomas Theophalus Jaeger	1853-1864
Rev. Henry Seipel Miller	Jan.-July -1864
Rev. Aaron Finfrock	1864-1891
Rev. William Wilbeforce Kramlich	1892-1901
Rev. Oscar Erwin Pflueger	1902-1913
Rev. Harvey Samuel Kidd	1914-1926
Rev. Harry P. Miller	1926-24 Dec. 1939
Rev. Dr. Elmer Lebo Leisey	Apr. 1940-1957
Rev. James B. Miller	1957-30 June 1976

There were several periods between the departure or death of one minister and the arriving of another, varying from several months to two years when the pulpit was occasionally filled by preachers from other Lutheran Congregations or one or more ministers served as supply.

During the interim of several months in 1770, between Revs. Kurtz and Schultz, the records show that three different ministers preached at intervals of a month, VIZ.,

(1) Rev. Hellmuth of Lancaster, who was paid on 16 June 1770, 7s 6d, for preaching (undoubtedly the Rev. Justus Henry Christian Helmuth, at that time of Lancaster, Pa.)

(2) Rev. Krug, who on 11 July 1770 was paid 5s for preaching (no doubt Rev. John Andrew Krug, at that time pastor of Trinity Church, Reading, Pa.)

(3) Rev. Schmidt, who on 24 Aug. 1770 was paid 7s 6d for preaching (possibly Rev. John Frederick Schmidt, at that time at Germantown, Pa.)

Between the pastorates of Rev. Schultz and Rev. Daniel Ulrich, a period of about two years, it is supposed that Rev. William Beates (written also Betis and Petis) acted as supply for at least part of the time, as he was pastor for several years (from the summer of 1810) of the Warwick (Brickerville) parish, the congregation of which at that time was Brickerville (Warwick), Schaefferstown (Lebanon County), Swamp (Reinholds Station), Myerstown and Womelsdorf. Rev. Beates was born 14 June 1777 in Philadelphia and died at Lancaster on 17 August 1867 over 90 years of age. He was esteemed mostly for his strong common sense and practical grasp of everyday affairs. He was the last link in the great progressive chain of American Clergy, connecting the days of Muhlenberg with succeeding generations. He was the last of the Senior of the Synod. (Senior Reverendi Ministerii), those having held that office being - H. M. Muhlenberg, J. N. Kurtz, J.C.H. Helmuth, F.D. Schaeffer and William Beates.

For a full century, from its founding in 1750 to the year 1851, when Rev. Ulrich gave up Christ Lutheran Church (Tulpehocken) above Stouchsburg and all but two of the connected congregations, St. Daniel's belonged to the Tulpehocken charge with Christ Church as the head congregation. The congregation connected with Christ and St. Daniel's (some during the whole of that period, others during only a part of it) were Reed's, Northkill (Bernville), Rehrersburg, Little Tulpehocken, Womelsdorf, Schaefferstown (Lebanon Co.) Wenrich's (Linglestown), Myerstown, Newmanstown and probably several smaller ones. Then for two years until 25 Sept. 1853, the date on which Rev. Ulrich preached his farewell sermon there, St. Daniel's Church was apparently an independent congregation served by Rev. Ulrich, who also preached at Newmanstown during that period.

During Rev. T. T. Jaeger's pastorate for ten years, the names and numbers of the connected congregations appear to be continually shifting, so that scarcely a year passed without some changes. The congregations connected with St. Daniel's at different times during that period were Womelsdorf, Rehrersburg, Millersburg, Myerstown, Sinking Spring, North Heidelberg, Bern, Reeds, Belleman's, Alsace and St. Michael's.

For the half year in which Rev. Henry S. Miller served at St. Daniel's, there were connected with it Geigertown and Forest (Plow).

During the first year of Rev. Finfrock's pastorate, St. Daniel's had connected with it, Geigertown, Kissinger's and Bern. In 1865, Womelsdorf, Reed's, Strausstown, and Host were added and Geigertown dropped. A few years later Bern and Kissinger's were dropped and in 1887 Reed's was also given up and the Womelsdorf Parish was formed.

The parish consisted of Zion's (Womelsdorf), St. Daniel's (Heidelberg), St. John's (Host) and Zion's (Strausstown - Blue Mountain Church). The latter was dropped in 1913 and Trinity (Robesonia) added in 1917. The Parish remained intact until 1943 when St. Daniel's and Trinity, Robesonia, formed the Robesonia Parish with Rev. Elmer L. Leisey as Pastor. The Robesonia Parish was dissolved on 2 May 1957 when St. Daniel's voted to call its own Pastor and thus dissolved the long Parish ties with sister congregations.

Little is known about the early history of music in St. Daniel's. It is quite likely that the Rev. J. N. Kurtz, who is said to have instructed his congregations in singing, led the church music during his pastorate. Such seems to have partly been the case with other pastors. Church records furnish very little information concerning the leaders in singing, known as the "Vorsinger".

The schoolmaster who taught the church school connected with a congregation, generally served in the capacity of "Vorsinger". It is known that Andrew Fleisher served as Schoolmaster about 1812 and that Philip A. Guth promised to serve as "Vorsinger" on 12 September, 1813. But records available provide a continuity only as follows:

Samuel Saltzer	1824-1831
Johathan Bertram	1831-1840
Samuel Werner	1840-1866

Benjamin Z. Anderson 1866 - until sometime after the quarterly meeting of the "consistory" of St. Daniel's Church held on 4 June 1892 at which time a motion was made and carried "that singing of hymns be without lining off". A motion "that English hymn books be purchased" was also passed at that meeting.

At the time the original organ was purchased in April 1862, Samuel Werner was leader in church music on "Vorsinger" but it seems that he did not undertake to play the organ and consequently Benjamin Blatt and John S. Henry were appointed his assistants, who presided at the organ during Church Services. They served in that category from 1862 to 1866 when John Ernst became organist 1866-1869. Then followed successively:

David Knoll	1869-1877
Reuben T. Landis	1877-1882
John S. Henry	1882-1886
Benjamin Z. Anderson	1886-1897
John C. Donkel	1897-1918
Eugene Klopp	1918-1919
Homer Landis	1919-1927
Roscoe B. Angstadt	April-Dec. 1927
Pauline Illig	Jan.-April 1928
J. Kenneth Christman	1928-1934
Lester Coleman	1934-1952
Evelyn L. Stautler	1952-1954
Christine Mohn	1954-1956
Helen Smith	1956-1960
Florence M. Yost	1960-1962
Christine Mohn	1962-1966
Sylvia Sturdivant	1966-1969
Doris Kissling	1969-1973
Olin Evans	1973-1975
Miriam Borkert	July 1975 -

The original organ purchased in 1862 from Joel Kantner of Penn Township, Berks County was rebuilt in August 1906 by E. Palm of Mt. Penn, Pa. The present organ was purchased from the M. P. Moeller Co. of Hagerstown, Maryland in 1924 and completely rebuilt in 1974 by the M. P. Moeller Co. with new stops and new console.

ARTICLES OF GOVERNMENT AND DISCIPLINE

(Translation)

Proclaimed by the members of the Evangelical Lutheran Congregation in Heidelberg Township (St. Daniel's) probably in 1753

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN.

Since, through God's gracious providence and kind guidance, we have come from our old fatherland in Europe to America into this province of Pennsylvania, where we were received as subjects of our gracious King George II, and under whose most gracious scepter and sway, in addition to many other privileges and favors, we have the precious freedom of conscience, by virtue of which we are permitted to perform our regular worship, without disturbance and annoyance, according to our rules and regulations, and are also permitted to instruct ourselves and our children in the doctrines of God's word; consequently, from a motive of gratitude to God, esteem for our forefathers, and duty which we owe to ourselves, our children, and later generations, it shall be our great endeavor to preserve among us and posterity our pure and saving doctrine founded on God's word conformably to the original Augsburg Confession, etc., that we and those after us may have and keep a safe and sure way through this world of sorrow, through want and death, to eternal salvation.

In view of this, we, the deacons, elders, and members of the Evangelical Lutheran Congregation in Heidelberg Township, in the county of Reading, have made known our desire to the venerable Evangelical Lutheran Ministerium in Pennsylvania and petitioned that body to provide us with a faithful teacher and at the same time to receive our congregation into its union.

Now, then, the said venerable Ministerium has granted our petition and request and sent to us a faithful teacher (one who by the grace of God was seeking a field of labor), viz., John Nicholas Kurtz, at the time pastor of Tulpehocken, who was willing and ready to serve us, having commenced his labors near the close of 1750, and subsequently, in 1751, laid the corner-stone of our new church which is to be erected.

Since, then, God is a God of order and also directs that all things be done decently and in order, but as there has been no formal organization in our congregation, and because of an evident necessity for such, we have agreed upon and adopted the articles mentioned, hereinafter which shall remain in force until amended and in accordance with which we will act and conduct the affairs of our congregation in the future.

1. No person shall be considered a member of this congregation who is not willing to have his name recored in this church book; but such action is not intended for his harm or for the restriction of his liberty, but only for the purpose of good order and regularity.

2. Such a self-willed person shall not be served by our teacher, neither shall his children be baptized nor he be allowed at Holy Communion.

3. Every year, or as often as necessary, two (2) deacons shall be elected from the members of the church by a majority of the votes.

4. Such deacons shall be honest, free from coarse, prevailing sins and vices, and such as have good judgment.

5. At the election of such new deacons, the old deacons shall make settlement and shall deliver to the new deacons the accounts and money as well as the other church effects.

6. The deacons shall keep a watchful eye on the members of the congregation, and admonish such as lead disorderly lives, or inform the pastor so that such may be admonished and put in mind of their ways, especially at communion time.

7. Such as live in manifest deeds of the flesh shall not be considered members of the congregation until after thorough repentance and improvement.

8. All members irregular in life and behavior shall be dealt with according to the teachings and directions of our Lord Jesus Christ. Matthew 18.

9. Each and every member of the congregation shall state and at the same time subscribe the amount of money that he wishes to give each year for the support of the preacher, and at the end of the year hand such to the deacons.

10. No strange preacher shall be allowed to preach in our church, much less administer the sacrament, without previous announcement by our regular pastor and deacons.

11. We will not concede that our preacher of his own accord shall make an innovation or regulation without the agreement of the entire ministerial association (Synod).

12. Our congregation together with that at Tulpehocken shall be supplied by the regularly appointed and ordained pastors of that place.

13. We desire uniform church ceremonies with the united congregations.

14. As our Evangelical Lutheran Church will be greatly benefited and promoted by the church conventions (meetings of synod) to be held every year or as often as necessary, with a view to good and needful results, by the venerable Ministerium (Synod) of Pennsylvania, on which occasions the affairs of the congregation will be taken up and handled, we approve of such plan and arrangement not only as being commendable but also as being beneficial and necessary, and we shall be pleased to send at all times our pastors in addition to a delegate (properly authorized one), who shall represent our congregation there and aid and advise in promoting all favorable and useful measures.

Hereupon follow the names of the regular Church members together with a statement of the amount of money that each intends to give annually to the preacher.

Note - The 0's or ciphers following the several names in the list, correspond to similar characters given on the original in the church record, and it would seem that each such character indicates a yearly payment, according to which this list served the purpose of recording the payments for five years.

There is no date affixed to the document to which this list is appended but taking the list as a report for five yearly payments to the preacher, and as there are eight (8) other lists, beginning in 1759 and ending in 1766, which show what each of the several members paid to Rev. Kurtz, it would appear that the document was prepared or written about 1753 or 1754.

CONTRACT FOR THE MASON WORK OF THE FIRST CHURCH (24 May 1751)

(Translation)

On 24 May 1751, a contract was made and agreed to between Andrew Dietz and Michael Dietz, master masons of Lancaster County, of the first part, and John Beyer and Michael Schauer of the second part, as follows:

The before-mentioned master masons, Andrew and Michael Dietz agree to do the mason work of the church which is to be built in Heidelberg on the spot already marked and promise, in the first place, to construct well and properly the foundation, and after that to erect in a thorough manner and in accordance with the custom of mechanics, the walls of the church, the length of which is to be 40 feet, the width 36 feet and the height 20 feet. They also promised to have said masonry completed and in proper position by (the time not stated).

For the aforesaid work, the Contracting party, John Beyer and Michael Shchauer (Shower) promise to pay to said Andrew and Michael Dietz one shilling and six pence, Pennsylvania currency, for each perch of masonry, payment to be made on the next (fahl fehr) 16 November 1751.

Likewise the said John Beyer and Michael Schauer will provide board for two workmen (day laborers) who are to dig the foundation, and when four masons are at work, to carry mortar. They will also board the masons and the persons employed to carry mortar.

To render this contract binding in case of violation of any of its provisions both parties pledge themselves, each to the other, in the sum of 50 pounds Pennsylvania currency; and as evidence of strict compliance thereto, they have severally, each in his own hand, affixed their signatures and set their seals thereunto on the day and in the year before mentioned.

N.B. The masons shall receive double pay for the foundation.

CONTRACT WITH FREDERICK KOBEL FOR CERTAIN CARPENTER WORK IN CONNECTION WITH THE FIRST CHURCH

(29 June 1751)

(Translation)

Today the 29th of June 1751, John Beyer and Michael Schauer (Shower) have made a fair and genuine contract with Frederick Kobel to build an Evangelical Lutheran Church, the work to be done by him being set forth as follows:

He is to make two door-frames, eight window frames, for which purpose they (Beyer and Schauer) must see to the preparation of the lumber----, and a gallery of two rows of pews along the long side of the church and of three rows of pews along the short side; to erect a stairway, to fix purlins for the rafters, and to pur up a vestibule on the outside of the door.

For the work aforesaid Frederick Kobel is to receive 11 pounds Pennsylvania currency which they promise to pay on the first day of May 1752.

CONTRACT FOR THE CARPENTER WORK OF THE FIRST CHURCH
(18 June 1753)
(TRANSLATION)

Know all men by these present that today, the 18th of June 1753, a contract has been made and agreed to by us as follows:

The members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Heidelberg Township, Berks County, Province of Pennsylvania, namely John Lauk (Lauck), Simon Binetsch (Bennetsch), Michael Schauer (Shower), John Beyer (Boyer), John Artz, Philip Ermentraud (Ermentraut), Peter Feg (Feeg), Leonhard Feg, Henry Fiedler (Fidler) John Beyer Jr., Henry Beyer, Henry Gruber, Matthias Wennrich (Wenrich), Jacob Mauns (Mountz), Jost Hetterich (Hetrich), and Adam Schauer, contract their church to Christian Betz, master joiner, in the following manner:

He, Christian Betz, shall build their church in so far as concerns the carpenter work, and shall make everything in the line of carpenter work excepting the arch; in fact, he shall make in accordance with their plans whatever they may wish to have made in the church. He shall do good and thorough work, and with it all, find his own board.

In consideration therefor they promise to give him 24 pounds of Pennsylvania currency, the nails and glue he needs, beside free lodging during the time he works at the church.

Some of the money will be paid either just before he begins or during the time he is at work, and such part of the full amount that he did not receive while working, shall be paid him when the work is completed.

In return for this the said Christian Betz promises to do the kind of work hereinbefore mentioned good and thorough work, and to work continuously as long as they furnish him with board and do not stop him. During the time however, when no boards are furnished, he is expected to work somewhere else; but as soon as boards are again provided, he must immediately take up the work at the church. As further assurance that he will do good and thorough work, he obligates himself and his heirs to pay the sum of 40 pounds Pennsylvania currency to the church in which he is to perform this work.

In like manner, as an assurance of a just and full settlement, the men hereinbefore mentioned obligate themselves and their heirs to pay the sum of 40 pounds to the Church.

As further assurance and attestation, their names are subscribed below. Done in Heidelberg, the 18th June 1753.

CHURCH SCHOOL

There is no definite information available to indicate whether St. Daniel's Church had a school or schoolhouse during the early period of the Church's existence. Early church records have a subscription list with the name and amount of money each person in Heidelberg contributed toward the schoolhouse; however, it is not known whether the schoolhouse, for which this money was subscribed belonged to the "Lutheran Congregation in Heidelberg" or whether it was the schoolhouse connected with Christ Lutheran Church above Stouchsburg. No date is attached to the list; but as Nicholas Martin's widow is listed as one of the subscribers and as letters testamentary in the case of Nicholas Martin, it appears that the subscription was taken subsequent to that date. Also as Adam Schauer was shown as one of the contributors and as his will was probated 1 Aug. 1762, the contributions must have been made prior to this date, thus between 1758 and 1762. The heading of the subscription list is by no means clear. It may mean:

(1) A statement showing the amount of money each person in Heidelberg contributed toward the schoolhouse, or

(2) A statement showing the amount of money each person contributed toward the Schoolhouse in Heidelberg.

The first rendering would indicate that the schoolhouse was the one connected with Christ Lutheran Church at which place the pastor of the several Congregations had his residence. The record would signify that the schoolhouse was located in Heidelberg and belonged to the Congregation of that place.

Rev. Schulze, who served these congregations from 1771 to 1809, generally reported as many schools as he had congregations from which it might be presumed that the Heidelberg congregation had a schoolhouse sometime prior to Rev. Schulze's pastorate. But then Rev. Frederick Agustus Conrad Muhlenberg, who assisted his brother-in-law, Rev. Schulze during 1771 to 1773, speaks in his diary about the school and the schoolhouse at Tulpehocken (Christ Lutheran Church), but in no way alludes to a school in Heidelberg. There is, however, record of a transfer of a tract of land containing 150 perches which was sold on 20 May 1813, for 5 shillings, to the elders of the "Lutheran Congregation in Heidelberg", "for the use and benefit of said Congregation for school and for a house of worship forever". The land was deeded by Ludwig Fischer and wife Elizabeth.

On this tract of land is standing the present dwelling house, which was erected in 1903. For several decades prior to that year, the site was occupied by a building commonly known as the "Schoolhouse", which served as the residence of the organists and "Vorsinger" of the Church and in which the schoolmasters of the "church-school" lived and taught.

When this earlier building was erected is not known. There are, however, records which show receipts for the years 1810, 1811, 1812 and 1813 relating to a schoolhouse and acknowledging receipt of lime, bricks, wrought nails, Blacksmith work and for work done at the schoolhouse. It appears that a schoolhouse was in course of construction during 1810-1813 and it is quite likely that at least part of the building that occupied the site of the present dwelling house on the church property, is the schoolhouse referred to in the receipts.

A "Schoolhouse", however, appears to have been connected with St. Daniel's Church some years prior to 1810 as a receipt among the church papers shows that Christian Miller, on Jan. 21, 1793, received of Michael Kehl three pounds, four shillings and six pence for carpenter's work in the schoolhouse ---"Schreiner Arbert im Schulhauss".

There is no further mention of a school until 1898, when an abortive effort was made to provide a religious school of instruction. This organization lasted only a very short time. Then in 1920, a school was organized and on 4 July 1920, it began to function with a membership of fifty-four persons. The school grew rapidly and in the next five years, membership increased to approximately 170. In the meantime, the Sunday School was instrumental in having electric lights installed in the church, paid for electrification of the church grounds and contributed toward the cost of the organ. Later the school was responsible for the erection of the pavilion in the grove. This building was subsequently used for class space as the school expanded. Increasing growth of the school compelled recognition of need for additional facilities to house the school.

On 7 May 1950, the congregation of St. Daniel's approved the construction of the Educational Building which is attached to the west side of the church. Later growth resulted in alteration which substantially increased the space available.
